

Questionnaire 2

After Your Teaching Practice

You are just finishing your first teaching practice. This follow-up questionnaire is designed to find out how you got on and to see what changes there have been (if any) in your attitudes towards teaching in general and your ability to perform certain teacherly skills.

1. How do you feel about the teaching practice which you have just completed? Use the 5 – 1 rating scale given below:

5 4 3 2 1

2. You almost certainly had mixed feelings about certain aspects of this teaching experience. Using a similar rating scale, indicate how you feel you were able to do the following:

a) use accurate English in the classroom	5	4	3	2	1
b) give appropriate instructions	5	4	3	2	1
c) explain a grammar point	5	4	3	2	1
d) establish rapport with a class of pupils	5	4	3	2	1
e) keep control of a class	5	4	3	2	1
f) plan a 45-minute lesson	5	4	3	2	1
g) get pupils to work in groups	5	4	3	2	1
h) adapt materials from a course book	5	4	3	2	1
i) recognize good and bad teaching by others	5	4	3	2	1
j) evaluate your own teaching skills	5	4	3	2	1
k) learn from your own mistakes	5	4	3	2	1
l) learn from the advice/criticism of others	5	4	3	2	1

3. Please indicate any areas in which you feel you learned or gained something from the TP experience (e.g. confidence, classroom management, understanding of how learning takes place etc.).

4. Were your worries and fears about this experience justified?

5. How were you able to cope with problem situations?

6. What skills or knowledge do you feel you need to work on most in order to improve your overall competence as a teacher?

7. How well you feel the methodology classes prepared you for this teaching practice?

5 4 3 2 1

8. How do you rate your commitment to becoming a teacher of English in comparison with your feelings before this teaching practice?

more the same less